(Civil Services Aptitude, Reasoning & Decision-Making)

1. A district introduces free bicycles for schoolgirls. After one year, attendance rises from 65% to 82%. During the same period, the district also appoints additional teachers and improves school sanitation. The administration must decide whether to expand the bicycle scheme to other districts. Funds are limited, and expansion would reduce the budget available for other educational programmes. Which of the following would provide the strongest basis for the decision?

(a) Expand the scheme because the increase in attendance shows that it has achieved its objective.

(b) Compare attendance changes among similar students who received and did not receive bicycles, while accounting for other improvements, before deciding on expansion.

(c) Continue the scheme in the existing district for another year and expand it only if attendance remains above 80%.

(d) Conduct a survey of beneficiaries to determine whether they believe bicycles improved their attendance, and expand the scheme if most agree.

2. A district has funds to establish only one new primary health centre.

INDICATOR	VILLAGE A	VILLAGE B
POPULATION	9000	5000
DISTANCE TO NEAREST HOSPITAL	8 KM	30 KM
MAIN PROBLEM	HIGH MATERNAL HEALTH COMPLICATIONS	POOR EMERGENCY ACCESS
EXISTING SERVICES	WEEKLY MOBILE MEDICAL UNIT	NO REGULAR MEDICAL UNIT

The district must make a decision within one month. A detailed health survey would take six months, but recent district health records are available. Which of the following is the most appropriate course of action?

(a) Select Village A because its larger population and maternal health problems indicate greater potential benefit.

(b) Select Village B because its distance from the hospital and lack of regular medical services indicate greater need.

(c) Use the available health records to compare preventable health risks, service gaps and expected benefits in both villages, then select the location while arranging interim support for the other village

(d) Postpone the decision until a detailed survey is completed because allocating public resources without complete information may be unfair.

3. A district introduces evening classes to improve learning outcomes. Test scores improve, but most participants were already academically stronger. Weaker students attend irregularly due to household responsibilities. What is the most appropriate decision?
   (a) Continue the programme because test scores have improved.
   (b) Discontinue it because weaker students are not benefiting sufficiently.
   (c) Expand it to all students to ensure equal opportunities.
   (d) Continue it where useful, redesign support for weaker students and assess their progress separately.

4. Street vendors block a road used by ambulances. An alternative vending area is available, but relocation may reduce their income. Emergency access must improve within two weeks. What should the administration do?
   (a) Relocate all vendors immediately to ensure emergency access.
   (b) Allow vending to continue until a suitable rehabilitation plan is prepared.
   (c) Ensure emergency access through immediate, proportionate restrictions while consulting vendors on long-term arrangements.
   (d) Relocate only willing vendors and temporarily divert ambulances to other roads.

5. Preliminary tests suggest drinking-water contamination in two areas. The extent is unknown, and safe water is available for only one-third of the district. Further test results will arrive in 12 hours. What is the most appropriate response?
   (a) Supply safe water only to the two affected areas until further confirmation.
   (b) Prioritise confirmed and high-risk areas, issue precautions, conduct further testing and revise the response as new evidence emerges.
   (c) Distribute safe water equally across the district to ensure fairness.
   (d) Declare the entire district's water unsafe and distribute available supplies on a first-come, first-served basis.
